NOTE.

Dated.....30th December 1915

D.O. letter No. 6 dated 29th December 1915 from Mr. K. R. Srinivasiengar, Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur, in the matter of giving Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao, Economic Superintendent, the status and emoluments of an Assistant Commissioner.

2. Forwarded to the Secretary, Revenue Department, for action.

The Revenue Secretary should be good enough to suggest whether the status and emoluments of an Assistant Commissioner could be given to all the District Economic Superintendents, whose juniors have been appointed to act as Assistant Commissioners.

Of the five Amildars who have been appointed St. Insp^{ts}, A, E & I, it is only Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao that is fully qualified for the post of an Ass^t Com^r, and his name has already been included in the Select list of Off^{rs} eligible for such posts—

6. Men^{rs} J. Hanuramta Rao & M. Rama Rao who are junior to him have been appointed to act as Ass^t Com^r, but ~~they are only~~ ^{are only of short duration} — ~~short~~ vacancies. ~~Therefore the proposal contained present recommendation has been sent up.~~

7. Off^{rs} who are Seconded in their permanent appointments do not seem to be entitled to af vacancies occurring in the general line & it is only when permanent or long-term vacancies occur, that their cases have to be considered—

8. Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao is now getting Rs 225 p.m & if he is app^{nt} to act as Ass^t Com^r & ~~is~~ ^{is} permitted to take charge of his new app^{nt}, he will get only Rs 200 p.m — His app^{nt} is for the rank & status of an as^t Com^r — He will get enhanced T.P. — Branches II & V may be consulted.

9. It is clear that it is not intended to disturb Mr. M. S. Ramachandra Rao from his present appointment. So the only way of granting his request would be by appointing him as an Ag. Assistant Commr, seconding him in the appointment for the time. So long as the vacancy lasts, & appointing another Ag. Commr to fill the vacant charge and do the duties. This is obviously an inexpedient arrangement in the case of short term vacancies.

10. Even ~~as well~~ as regards long vacancies, as Mr. Ramachandra Rao's substantive appointment is that of an Am of the 4th Class (permanent) but S. p. 1st 3rd class, as an Ag. Asst Commr he will perhaps be entitled to draw only Rs. 200 p. m. under Art. 61 M.S.R. unless his substantive appointment is considered to be that of a Dist. Economic Asst Commr, and his substantive pay Rs. 225 p. m., in which case he will be entitled to get Rs. 250 p. m. the minimum pay of the Asst Commr.

Serial
No.

It is ^{therefore} not clear how the arrangement will be advantageous to Mr Namaschandra Rao financially. As regards his pay there is of course the advantage of his getting enhanced T. A., but I believe the T. A. of all the D¹ Economic Supts. has recently been raised to Rs 4 per diem, & Sanpore side. This may be verified by reference to Br VI.

11. But Mr Namaschandra Rao need not, I think, apprehend that these temporary postings of his Juniors will stand in the way of his being made a permanent Asst Comm^r when his turn comes. But I believe this is still a long way off, as there are several of his Seniors still acting as Asst Comm^r, & still & before they are all confirmed, his case can't be taken up.

12. As to quite independently of these vacancies, Mr Namaschandra Rao and the question of Juniors being put to act temporarily in them, Mr Namaschandra Rao may be given the rank & status of an Asst Comm^r if Govt. pleases so long as he is D. & Supt. without being brought on the cadre of Asst Comm^r.

on the understanding that this does not make arrangement temporary, and the period does not count for future increments in the Asst. Commr's grade, should be confirmed as an Asst. Commr in the general line without reverting to must however be noted that this arrangement will involve additional expenditure, and it will also involve similar rank & status being given to the other Messrs J. S. Nagharachari & Sri Narasimha Sastry also, both of whom are senior to Mr. Namaschandra.

The Financial Deptt. will have to be consulted regarding this.

I do not consider the case so simple as represented by Aps Fin. There is a certain amount of hardship involved on the officer concerned if the course suggested by him is followed.

I think the following is a reasonable solution.

(a) A clear note should be recorded in the Secy and communicated to the officer concerned that, subject always to continued efficiency ^{& fulfilment of required tests}, his place will be between such & such officers as an Asst Commr on reversion to the ordinary line.

(b) When the officer becomes a loser in the matter of salary by continuing as Economic Superis, he should be given a local allowance to make up the loss.

Both Messrs M. S. Ramachandran (D.E.S.) and T. Hanumantha Rao (now ag. as Asstt Comr.) hold Substantive appointments as Amildars, and their relative rank in the Amildar list is fixed. This is probably the order in which they will be promoted to the rank of Asstt Comr. When permanent appointments are made.

- (iii) whether independently of these ag. vacancies, Mr. Das may not be given the rank and status of an Asstt Commr so long as he continues to be Distt Economic Suptt.

SS ^{10/2} ~~10/2~~ ^{192/16} Mr Ramachandra Rao, will gain nothing by being appointed an ag. Asst. Commr during temporary vacancies. On the contrary his emoluments will be curtailed, and it will involve his being seconded in the list, and another ag. officer being appointed for short periods. This is inexpedient in the interests of the public service.

VS But quite apart from the question of his junior being appointed ag. Asst. Commr for short periods Govt may if they deem fit give some Mr Ramachandra Rao and some one or two of the other Economic Suppls: the frank and Stables of Asst Commrs. They will of course not be included in the Cadre, and the period spent by them as Ags will not qualify for increments.
